Comment:Hi

My family live in close proximity to this and strongly oppose it ... the road is a small lane that doesn't get recognised by the council for maintenance ... big heavy vehicles will damage the road and also over head cables (which have been damaged previously in the past) I have small children then regularly cross this road for school and use the alley . A lot of children walk to the church to get Picked up from school and could cause danger to them ... this road is just not big enough to take this kind of traffic .
