Mr Carver

Thank you for your enquiry below. Unfortunately the decision was made by the Council to cease providing the householder enquiry service as of 1st April 2020 due to staff resources.

You can carry out a self- assessment using the Planning Portal Interactive guides at <https://interactive.planningportal.co.uk/>

Mini guides regarding common projects such as conservatories, extensions, porches and outbuildings will help with your assessment and can be found here https://www.planningportal.co.uk/homepage/29/mini_guides

After making a self-assessment, if you require formal written confirmation that Planning Permission is not required for the proposal you can submit a Certificate of Lawful Development for a Proposed Use application and the matter will be dealt with by a Planning Officer. I have attached the necessary form and the fee is £103.00. Alternatively you can submit via the Planning Portal at <https://www.planningportal.co.uk/>

Kind Regards

Debbie Smith

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
