Dear Mr Cook

Thank you for your email requesting proof that the above property has been used as a HMO for students since 2010.

I can confirm that the property 9 Wigginton Road has had a continuous student exemption from 2010 onwards and has been occupied by multiple residents each year.

I trust that this clarifies the situation for you.

Good Morning,

I am applying for a HMO certificate of lawful use for 9 Wigginton Road.

The house has been a student rental pre 2012 and the planning department are requesting evidence - can you please provide me evidence that the house has been occupied by 7 students since 2010 please?

Thanks, Daniel Cook

Good afternoon

You can submit an application for Certificate of Lawfulness for existing use, if you can provide evidence such tenancy agreements, council tax bill etc. showing that the property has been in constant use as a House in Multiple Occupancy since or before April 2012. You will also need to provide a location plan with the site outlined in red, showing the direction of North and two named roads.

You can submit through the Planning Portal

<https://www.planningportal.co.uk/> or the form can be found here

<https://www.york.gov.uk/LawfulDevelopmentCertificate> The fee is £462.

Hello,

I am looking to source a certificate of lawful use for 9 Wigginton road, HMO property.

We have owned and rented the house to students pre 2012 which we have provided details to your office previously - can you please advise how I would gain the certificate to support a potential sale of the house?

I have attached a tenancy agreement pre 2012 to support the certificate - please do let me know if you require more info

The property is owned by Geoff Cook (My Father), I am the HMO license holder on the property and manage the tenancies

Thanks,

Daniel Cook
