

Design and Access Statement

The property, including the proposed development is not in a conservation area, does not affect a listed building and is not a major development, hence a statement of this type is not needed.