

Tree survey/arboricultural implications

The proposed building will be 4 metres away from some small plum-trees to the south east side which do not need to be removed for the building works to be carried out. There are no established or protected trees in the proposed building site which will be affected by the works. The building will not require any trees to be removed in order to be constructed.