Following a planning history search of the property, I can confirm there is a condition attached to the original planning permission for the property (31591B) which requires car parking facilities in connection with the development to be maintained for parking use at all times. Therefore, having regard to the above condition, the proposed garage conversion would require planning permission.

Yes No

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?
