

Under floor heating within existing sitting room and drawing room

Existing floorboards to be carefully removed, kiln dried and stored, to be re-laid over u/f heating system

Pipes to be fitted within insulation boards, fitted between joists.

Under floor heating within kitchen, dining room and coridor

Existing C20 concrete floor to be carefull taken up.

In utility coridor cobbles to be retained and protected under sand.

Limecrete floor system from Mike Wye to be installed as detailed below and in accordance with manufacturers details.

Geocell foam glass will form breathable insulating layer.

