

Foreword

This application is a re submission of PA20/10992, where the correspondence received, stated the curtilage shown exceeded that deemed to be acceptable under a Part Q application. No other material amendments have occurred as part of the re submission, other than the red line amendment. It should be noted that no other reasons were given for refusal on the previous application.