Comment: Shirehampton already is on the verge of becoming a takeaway/hairdresser haven.

Pretty soon there will be nothing other than fast food.

I worry that the general use application will be a green light to house several families in cupboards as was recently found in Avonmouth.

No objections to a sit down cafe/bistro type place but we already have an abundance of takeaways in the area. Surely more takeaways will only damage the existing ones - not to mention the additional waste and smells.
