

Heritage Statement

The application site is not on the national statutory list of designated heritage assets, nor is it on the Council's local list of valued buildings. The site is not within the boundary of a conservation area.

The proposed design will not affect any identified key views to the adjacent conservation area set out in the conservation area appraisal, and the proposal will have no impact on the significance of any heritage assets.