

The proposed work is very similar to numerous extensions which have been built over the last few years in this part of Oxford.

My client's insurers provide flood cover in the normal way on their Buildings and Contents policies.

On the basis of the above, I believe that the design submitted is appropriate for the site and location.