Comment: I would be absolutely outraged to see the Wheatsheaf music venue close. As a regular at the Spin Jazz Club, I can confidently say the Oxford would be losing one of its most friendly and intimate music venues, with especially few of these so close to the city centre.

The Spin brings some of London's greatest jazz talent to Oxford, as well as nurturing some upcoming names closer to home. The Wheatsheaf is home to some of the city's most eclectic music; it would be going against the grain of EVERYTHING Oxford stands for to let such a culturally significant venue go.

I vehemently disagree with this proposal and will try to do everything in my power to stop this going ahead.

I do hope you take my consideration into account. I have witnessed a similar deal of upset around the music community and I'm sure many more people will be strongly objecting to this appalling proposal.

Thank you for your kind attention.

Kind regards

William Young
