Comment: The Wheatsheaf has been a staple of the grassroots music scene in Oxford for over 20 years, with the loss of The Celler it has become the last bastion of independent grassroots music in Oxford and one of the few remaining havens for those of an "alternative" nature. To replace it with accommodation for a grand total of nine students would cause irreparable damage to the very soul of Oxford, I am appaled that whoever owns the lease would not consider this, but alas, money is always the victor. And I suppose it is part and parcel of [REDACTED] kill the character of Oxford and its unique "Town and gown" atmosphere, and turn into into another copy of [REDACTED], [REDACTED], [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
