

Accompanying Photo Sheet

1. General view looking North from the East corner of paddock

2. General view looking North from West corner of paddock

3. General view from West corner looking South back towards stable block and properties

4. General view from East corner looking South back towards stable block and properties

5. General view showing effective screening offered by existing vegetation even in late Autumn

6. General view of screening from main paddock and existing post and rail fencing in place to delineate current paddock (meaning little material change to current boundaries or style)

7. General view demonstrating proposed location at base of slope providing further natural screening