4. Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works:

The proposed works consist of the demolition of three outbuildings which are irreparable and beyond their intended life cycle. There are three existing buildings which are a double garage complete with storage room, a large Shed and a double Stable. The proposed works are to demolish the dilapidated buildings and replace with them the following. A new timber double garage with red tiled roof complete with garden room and storage area to the rear. This new timber framed and timber cladded building will be of a feather boarded finish and red tiled roof which will work with the style of the house situated at Martins Green and will be of a similar style to the adjacent properties (Berden Bury and Mid Summers House) this will improve the aesthetical look from the street and will be in keeping with the style and design of those properties situated both East and West of Martins Green.

The existing dilapidated Stables will be replaced with a new stables and will be of similar style. The stables will be painted black too, as to match the style of the proposed Garage building and those outbuildings to the adjacent properties.
