Dear Ms Shearing,

With regards to the recently amended application for additional housing development on Fort Halstead, I wish to lodge my objection to the new proposal. Previous approval was based on 450 houses which is already more than enough to overwhelm the nearby villages of Halstead and Knockholt. Any additional development, be it Fort Halstead or Broke Hill, should not be entertained as frankly speaking the areas are not suitable to support such large influxes of people and will destroy Green Belt land and the habitat for wildlife that clings to these spaces.
