

The sensitive neighbouring property to the application site is that is mentioned is Moorland. This is to the west of the site. The outbuilding proposed to be converted under the application is located at the southern end of the application site and not next to Moorland. The existing, established boundary between Moorland and Aconite House will be retained and not affected by the application. The proposed alterations will not have any impact on Moorland or any other properties in the area