Comment Reasons:

- Effect on character of area

Comment: Bravo! This is precisely what Oxford should be doing in these post- pandemic times. Not just the city centre, but our full-of-character local areas must be scrupulous in presenting an attractive face to the world. I would eat out more in Cowley Road if the landlords had a holistic regard for its attractiveness. All E [REDACTED] plastic shopfronts should be banned, the last two particularly offensive in Oxford. There should be none whatsoever, and you should look carefully at tenants [REDACTED] By the way, tragically, the very worst shopfront in Oxford, is the abominable [REDACTED] in the Cowley Road. It looks like something on [REDACTED] and attracts nobody to [REDACTED]. Get rid of that, and Cowley Road would boom with people like me who cannot walk with my wife along streets that are unattractive, if I am spending money. That is why this proposal is a breath of well needed fresh air. Worthy of Cambridge's approach@!
