Certificates

Are you providing a Certificate of Design, Certificate of Construction or Notice of Finalisation of Design Details (Form Q)? *

Yes No

The certification of design scheme permits the certification of specific details to be undertaken sometime after the certification of the general arrangements have been completed and warrant (or stages warrant) has been granted. The design certificate will be accompanied by a schedule (known as Schedule 1) listing any items or details which the certificate does not cover in detail. Once the details have been finalised, the approved certifier issues the Notice of Finalisation of Design Details (Form Q).
