old upvc windows which were not in keeping with the property were replaced as part of renovation works (which were consented, not sure why the windows weren't mentioned) This was to the side of the property. We plan to replace all the windows in due course. When we applied for de-listing we were told as upvc windows were already installed prior to the building becoming listed there should be no problem to replace them. We were not aware we needed to apply for further consent.
