Good afternoon Florence

I hope this email finds you well

Thank you for the amended location plan and for the drawings with added dimensions, the elevational dimensions appear to measure correctly, however the depth of the proposed extension annotated as 7050 when measured to a scale of 1:50 measures 7513, also the width stated as 3400 when measured to the given scale comes up as 5280

Can these please be corrected as all measurements need to be accurate when viewed online, this is required as all our consultations are done electronically

I can confirm that once the above point is addressed and we receive confirmation in writing that you are happy with the amended description, no further information is required to validate these applications.

Kind regards
