

Description/Schedule of Existing Uses on the Site

The site has an agricultural history with uses including rearing live stock (not in the last 25 years) and keeping horses.

A storage shed has been present on the land for at least 30 years.

The land was said to be mined for stone for the farm building nearby, between 100 and 200 years ago.