Vigil for June as family call for answers

Anniversary of 85-year-old's death in crane tragedy

One year on from the day a crane fell into a Bromley-by-Bow home and killed an 85-year-old woman, her family are calling for answers around what led to the fatal incident.

On July 8, 2020, a 60ft crane from a building site crashed onto a terrace of six cottages in Compton Close.

Resident June Harvey, inset, who was in her bedroom when the crane crashed through the roof, was killed in the incident. Those injured included a building site worker who was operating the crane when it toppled.

The collapse is still being investigated by police and the Health and Safety Executive, and families and neighbours of Compton Close are calling for quicker action.

A lawyer for June's family, Helen Clifford, said: "Their lives have been turned upside down.

"They still don't know what went wrong or why."

A vigil is to be held today at the site to remember June and mark the anniversary.

It has been organised by Families Against Corporate Killers and the Construction Safety Campaign pressure groups.
