

Woodley House, South Road, Wivelsfield Green, RH17 7QS

Email: info@sussextreeworks.co.uk

www.sussextreeworks.com

21st July 2021

Re: Eucalyptus at Royal Cottage Homes, Ditchling.

I believe that the aforementioned tree has been pollarded or heavily reduced in the past, resulting in vigorous and poorly attached re-growth. This regrowth has now become quite large and for the safety of the garden occupants/ outbuildings it should now be managed. I believe that an amount of 2.5-3 metres removed back to good growth points where possible will be sufficient.

Yours sincerely,

Geoffrey Foers-Place
BSc Hons
Cert arb.
Registered QTRA user.