Thank you for your enquiry. I can advise that the original planning permission for the conversion of Bramerton Lodge to houses, including yours, came with a legal agreement that removed permitted development rights, including for the erection of outbuildings such as a shed. Planning permission is therefore required for your proposal to replace an existing shed.

This can be applied for online through the Planning Portal website or by downloading from that website a 'paper copy' and sending this directly to us. You would need the 'householder' type of application and the fee is £206.

I hope this is of some assistance. Please contact me if you have any queries

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent. Yes No

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?
