

EN1.Exist - Environment Agency Application Ref: EPR/VB3891AB
4 Westfield Cottages, Kelk YO25 8HJ. - Installation of new Sewage Treatment Plant, using existing discharge point following removal of existing septic tank. This table shows all the requirements from the Environment Agency 'Existing Discharge' Checklist and detailed answers by the operator to all of the requirements.
#	Requirements from the Environment Agency 'Existing Discharge' Checklist	Answers from Applicant/ Operator
1	The discharge was already happening before 1st January 2015	YES, as Applicant/ Operator, I confirm that the discharge actually started in 1973
2	You have not hanged the discharge from ground or a different surface water	YES, as Applicant/ Operator, I confirm that the dischrge will not be changed from ground, or a different surface water
3	You have not moved the location of the discharge, or if you have, it is still within 10 metres of the previous location	YES, as Applicant/ Operator, I confirm that the location of the discharge will not be moved
4	You have not changed the volume, or if you have, it is not greater than 5 cubic metres (5,000 litres) a day to surface water	YES, as Applicant/ Operator, I confirm that the volume will not be changed and according to the Environment Agency daily discharge calculator, my discharge will be 0.75 cubic metres per day to surface water

All of the above requirements have been answered in the affirmative for this application. Therefore, according to Environment Agency guidance this discharge will be classed as 'Existing'.

5 . Declaration

I declare that the above information is factually correct.

Name of Applicant/ Operator	Signature	Date
PAUL G MILNER		30th July 2021