5.5 Notices

5.5.1 Any notice or other document to be served on either of the parties under the terms of or in connection with this agreement shall be sufficiently served if it is left or delivered at, or sent by 1st class post or by recorded delivery addressed to:

5.6 Abandonment

5.6.1 If it comes to the attention of the Landlord that the Premises have not been occupied by the Tenant for more than 21 days and the Tenant has not given the Landlord notice in accordance with clause 3.6.4 above, and if, following further investigation by the Landlord, the Landlord forms the belief, and has reasonable cause to believe, that the Tenant has ceased to reside at the Premises, the Landlord may treat the Premises as being abandoned by the Tenant and re-enter the Premises and thereby bring this agreement to an end. Such entry by the Landlord will not affect any right or rights the Landlord may have against the Tenant in respect of any subsisting breach by the Tenant of the Tenant's agreements and obligations under this agreement as at the date of the re-entry

5.7 Data Protection Act

The tenant(s) hereby consent the landlord and or landlords agent have authority To carry out credit checks and at any time throughout the period the tenant (s) have possession of the premises. How we calculate your gas cost?

Gas is a natural product. One unit does not always produce exactly the same amount of energy. In order to price energy from gas consistently, we convert your units used into kiloWatt hours of energy, using the following formula:

a. metric units used	See detail m1
b. x calorific value	See detail
c. x volume correction	1.0226400
d. ÷ kWh conversion	3.6
e. = kWh	See detail

If you need independent advice

The Citizens Advice consumer service gives free, confidential and impartial advice. You can get in touch with them for advice at anytime during the complaints process. Call them on 03454 04 05 06, or visit citizensadvice.org.uk/energy

We aim to resolve complaints as quickly as possible

We'll make every effort to resolve your complaint within a day of receiving it. However, sometimes it can take a little longer, so if we haven't been able to sort things out within eight weeks, or if we can't agree a way forward with you, (we call this 'deadlock'), we'll write and let you know that you have the right to pass your complaint to the Ombudsman Services: Energy.

The Ombudsman is there to help sort out disputes between energy suppliers and their customers. It's free to use their services and they're totally independent – they don't take sides and their decisions are based only on the information they have. You can call them on 0330 440 1624, go online at ombudsman-services.org/energy or write to Ombudsman Services: Energy, PO Box 966, Warrington, WA4 9DF

You don't have to accept their decision, but if you do, we'll act on what they say. That might mean saying sorry, explaining what's gone wrong, fixing the problem or paying you compensation.
