

The small yellow circles are the up and down lights

The large green circles are where the trees are where bats could possibly roost.