

Written explanation for the proposed use of a septic tank and associated soak away in relation to

PA / 09325.

As you will see from the enclosed South west water drainage plan, with our proposed site marked with a red asterix there is a distance exceeding 700 metres between the application site and the nearest foul main connection point making the use of mains drainage completely impractical.