

Design and access statement

The design is the exact same roof , hence no new drawings required to be designed. The rafters replace the existing in the same positions the same would apply for the ridge .

The carpenters will fix to the old oak trusses and king posts and the only restoration as such will be to harden or support oak beams deemed useable.