Type of Application

This application is to ascertain which one of the following would be lawful: *

- An existing use of buildings or land.
- An existing operation of development.
- Any other matter constituting a failure to comply with any condition or limitation subject to which planning permission has been granted.

Description of Existing Use of Buildings or Other Land and/or Existing Operations

Description of Existing Use, Buildings or Operations

Describe the existing uses, building works or operations for which you want a certificate of lawfulness: * (Max 500 characters)

There was originally a garage which has been refurbished into a new dining room, the garage door has been removed and replaced with double doors. A new sun room/conservatory has been built to the rear of the building, this doesn't exceed 2.5m in height and is predominately glazing due to the nature of the room. There has also been a side extension created with access through an existing set of doors, the side extension is built with timber, brick front facade and doesn't exceed 2.5m in height.

Existing Use Class

If a certificate of lawfulness is sought for either an existing use or an existing use in breach of a condition, please state the Use Class as described in the Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) (Scotland) Order 1997 the use relates to: *

Class 9 Houses

Is there more than one use of activity/operation? *

Yes No

Grounds for Application for Certificate of Lawfulness

Please state the grounds under which the certificate is sought: *
(Note: at least one option must be selected)

- The use began more than 10 years before the date of this application and has operated continuously.
- The use, building works, or operations in breach of condition began more than 10 years before the date of this application.
- The use began within the last 10 years, as a result of a change of use not requiring planning permission, and there has not been a change of use requiring planning permission in the last 10 years.
- The operations (for instances, building or engineering works) were substantially completed more than 4 years before the date of the application.
- The use as a single dwelling house began more than 4 years before the date of this application.
- Other – specify (this might include claims that the change of use or building work was not development, or that it benefited from planning permission granted under the Act or by the General Permitted Development Order).

Are there any existing planning permission, Certificates of Lawfulness, enforcement notices or breach of condition notices affecting the application site?

Yes No

Information in Support of a Certificate of Lawfulness

When did the use or activity begin, and/or when were the building works or operations substantially Completed? *

What information or documentation are you providing with your application to support this date? *

- A plan
- Evidence to substantiate your grounds of application
- Other supporting information

Please describe in further detail, the supporting information that you are providing: * (Max 500 characters)

Elevations and floor plans of what is current and elevations and floor plans of works before any additions were added.

In the case of an existing use or activity, including an existing use or activity in breach of conditions, has there Yes No
Been any interruption or material change to the continuous use? *

Does the application for a Certificate relate to a residential use where the number of residential units has Yes No
Changed?

Please explain why you consider a Certificate of Lawfulness should be granted: * (Max 500 characters)

I feel that due to the nature of the works and the length of time they have been complete without any complaints that a certificate of lawfulness should be granted on this occasion. The works have been complete for over 5 years and there has never been any complaints from any neighbours etc - the works that have been complete don't impede on any of the neighbouring houses and don't look into their garden and/or block sunlight any point of the day, the additions are also aesthetically pleasing.

Pre-Application Discussion

Have you discussed your proposal with the planning authority? * Yes No

Any other Particulars or Supplementary Information

Please provide any other particulars or information here which you consider may be relevant: * (Max 500 characters)

The additions to the house are not unsightly and the heights are not intrusive of any neighbour, they have been constructed for over 5 years and never had a complaint.

List of Documents, Drawings or Plans which accompany this Application

Please provide a full list of documentation, drawings or plans which accompany this application which you are submitting as supporting information and evidence: * (Max 500 characters)

Location and site plan showing the outline of the building as is now - taken from OS map. Previous floor plans and elevations - shown the house before any works took place. Floor plans and elevations of the house as is now - what is there currently with the new works in place.

Interest in Land

Please state the applicant's interest in the land: *

Owner Lessee Tenant Occupier Other

Planning Service Employee/Elected Member Interest

Is the applicant, or the applicant's spouse/partner, either a member of staff within the planning service or an elected member of the planning authority? * Yes No

Checklist – Application for a Certificate of Lawfulness of Existing Use or Development

The burden of proof in a Certificate of Lawfulness is firmly with the applicant and therefore sufficient and precise information should be provided.
