

STATEMENT

The outbuilding where I would like to install the wood burner and flue, although not listed itself, lies within the curtilage of a listed building.

I do not believe the flue would have a negative impact on the house itself. The flue would be Matt black and would need to protrude through the pitch of the roof furthest from the house. It would not be visible from the house and much of the year would be hidden behind a large purple beech tree.