Dear Sir/Madam

NOTICE UNDER ARTICLE 13 OF THE TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING
(DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT PROCEDURE) (ENGLAND) ORDER 2015

I am writing on behalf of our client Aldi Stores Limited, who is seeking planning permission for the following development:

“Demolition of existing structures and erection of Class A1 food store and flexible use (Class A1/A2/A3) unit with associated access, car parking, servicing and hard and soft landscaping”

At: Land at Westgate and High Street, Skelmersdale.

Article 13

You are receiving this notice as Article 13 of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 requires an applicant for planning permission to give requisite notice of the application to any person who on the prescribed date (21 days prior) is an owner of the land to which the application relates or is a tenant with at least seven years remaining on their lease.

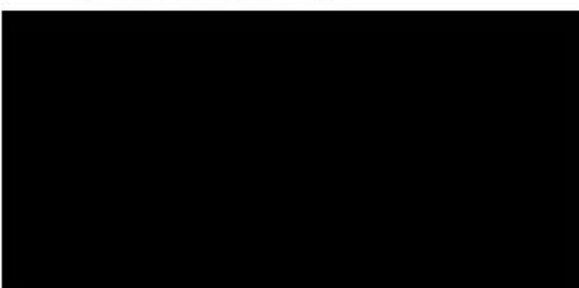

How to Comment

Should you wish to view or comment on the application you can do so by contacting the Local Planning Authority (Planning Portal Ref. PP-07477353) at:

Planning and Development Services
West Lancashire Borough Council
Ormskirk
Lancashire
L39 2DF

I trust the above is clear. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Yours faithfully
