In terms of its siting it is shown as being sited forward of the building line/ side elevation of the host dwelling house which fronts on to Rhindmuir View. So that the proposal is in accordance with b) above it would have to be re-sited so that it is even marginally behind this building line. so full planning permission for the 580mm from garden level deck would be required. This could be included in the full planning application for the outbuilding.
