

Non-material Amendment to DC/21/05938

Proposed Conversion of Agricultural Barn to a Single Dwelling Fasbourn Farm, Buxhall

for Mr A Cornish

Front elevation of the barn as existing

The internal layout has been revised as part of the design development with the Client / occupier of the proposed dwelling.

The main changes consist of:

- Internal layout revised positioning the master bedroom and kitchen to the more southerly aspect
- Windows on the south-west amended to enhance views of the countryside.
- Removal of two large, glazed doors to north-west elevation; new smaller glazed door for increased privacy.
- Amended terrace / courtyard layout.

These amendments improve the proposed building's response to its setting and increases privacy and views of the open countryside.
