

All opening windows on the upper floors are too small to provide safe means of escape in the event of fire.

Mr Marsden likes to keep the house very well maintained at all times. The timber tri-fold casement windows will be painted in National Trust Heritage Moss, to match the existing windows.

The property has electric and water supplies. Surface water and foul drains, as existing.

The site boundaries, as existing.