ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF TREE PRESERVATION ORDER APPLICATION

NB. You have stated on your application form that the tree is in a Conservation Area. Our records show that it is not in a Conservation Area but is covered by a Tree Preservation Order. Therefore, the application is being as a TP application.

We acknowledge receipt of your application for the above which was received at Warwick District Council on 20 April, 2022. Preliminary checks have been made to make sure that your application is in order. However, should there be additional information that we require, you may be contacted at a later stage.

Please note that an inspection of the trees may be carried out by a representative of the Council during the processing of the application.

Further information regarding Tree Preservation Orders and trees within Conservation Areas can be found on www.warwickdc.gov.uk.

It is envisaged that the Council's decision will be forwarded to you by 15 June, 2022.

NB. Do I need a felling licence from the Forestry Commission? More information can be found at <https://www.forestry.gov.uk/england-fellinglicences>

Yours sincerely
