Attachments: Additional Material.pdf

Good afternoon,

Further to emails last week, please find attached additional material which I trust now meets the requirements. You will note that I have re-used material previously submitted by Anglia Building Consultants. I have asked Nick Seaton if I can re-use some of this material and he has kindly agreed. I'm happy to share that correspondence if required.

Kind regards

Richard

Fenland District Council are a Data Controller under the General Data Protection Regulations. This means we store, hold and manage your personal data in line with statutory requirements to enable us to provide you with advice, guidance, support and processes connected with Development Services. To enable us to carry out this responsibility, we are required to share your information within the organisation and with certain partners, but will only do so in limited circumstances and in line with GDPR. For more information about how we hold your data, who we share it with and what rights you have to request information, please visit: <http://www.fenland.gov.uk/intranet/article/13293/Individual-rights>

E-mails and any attachments from Fenland District Council (the Council) are confidential. If you are not the intended recipient, please notify the sender immediately by replying to the e-mail, and then delete it without making copies or using it in any other way or placing any reliance on it.

It is not intended that this e-mail shall constitute either an offer or acceptance nor is it intended to form a contract between the Council and the addressee or any third party.

Any views or opinions presented are solely those of the sender and do not necessarily represent those of the Council unless otherwise specifically stated.

Although any attachments to the message will have been checked for viruses before transmission, you are urged to carry out your own virus check before opening attachments, since the Council accepts no responsibility for loss or damage caused by software viruses.

Senders and recipients of e-mail should be aware that, under the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016, the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 and other related legislation, the contents of e-mails may have to be disclosed in response to a request.

To provide you with our services we will need to record personal information, such as your e-mail address. This information will be kept securely and only accessed by approved staff. We will not share your information with anyone else without first telling you. If you would like more details about how we protect personal information, then please contact our Data Protection Officer.
