Dear planning,

I have now submitted and paid for my application (PP - 11209275)regarding a discharge of condition and will be bring the tile and brick samples in today.

Please find attached below :

Photo of my plinth wall that has been built which will be rendered white above.

Hope this is of assistance.

Regards

Thank you for your enquiry.

For applicant and agent enquiries relating to a new or live planning application we aim to respond within 5 working days from receipt. All other enquiries relating to a new or live planning application will be forwarded onto the planning case officer who will aim to respond in a timely manner.

Planning officers will not be able to respond to the following general planning enquiries:

- Householder permitted development enquiries. If you wish to gain a formal decision as to whether planning permission is required, then please apply for a Certificate of Lawful Development. Further information is available on our website.
- Householder enquiries as to whether an extension is likely to obtain planning permission. Please use the paid pre-application service. Further information is available on our website.
- Alterations to a proposal that has already been granted planning permission. Please submit a non-material amendment application or a minor material amendment application.
- Confirmation on the established use of a building or land. Please use the planning application search facility on the Council's website. If the use is still unclear, please apply for a Certificate of Existing Lawful Development.
- Enquiries of lawful commencement or whether conditions have been discharged on a site. This is a fee paid service.

Other general planning enquiries will normally be responded to within 20 working days from the date of receipt by the planning officer. If there is a delay to this response time, the planning officer will endeavour to communicate this to you.

If your enquiry is enforcement related or tree related, then please email corporateenforcement@surreyheath.gov.uk or trees@surreyheath.gov.uk , respectively.

If your email contains either a Freedom of Information or an Environmental Information Request, please forward it to foi@surreyheath.gov.uk
