No

If the answer to any of these questions is Yes, please provide plans, drawings and photographs sufficient to identify the location, extent and character of the items to be removed. Also include the proposal for their replacement, including any new means of structural support, and state references for the plan(s)/drawing(s).

The proposal is intended to carry out remedial repairs to the chimney arch where a number of the bricks that form the half-arch have dropped noticeably with sections of the original lime mortar becoming loose and detached. Small pieces of lime mortar are continuously dropping out of the arch as people walk around the upstairs bedroom.

Erect an arch former to aid with dismantling the arch. Carefully lift hearth in upstairs bedroom saving the bricks so that they can be re-used.

Re-build the arch re-using the original bricks and using lime mortar, NHL 3.5 and medium sand 1:2 mix. Re-lay hearth using existing bricks.

Take down former and point underside of the arch.
