WANDSWORTH SASH WINDOWS

At Wandsworth Sash Windows, we began life solely supplying sash windows in the South West London area. We have since expanded to cover the whole of London and the home counties, supplying casement windows, front doors, French doors, bi-folding doors and much more.

We believe our approach and ethos is the reason that customers across the South East have trusted us with their home improvements. We strive to provide the highest quality products and best customer service to all our clients, and this is what has allowed us to expand.

We know that the personal touch is very important to our clients, so when you deal with us you will deal with the same person throughout the complete process, from quotation to installation.

Our Head Office is in Lower Sydenham and we operate two showrooms on Lavender Hill in South West London and on Brockley Road in South East London. You are more than welcome to visit us, take a look at our samples and have a chat about how we can help you.

ABOUT US

We employ highly-skilled and time-served joiners and carpenters who use traditional joinery methods. Our dedicated team will be there for you throughout the complete design and installation process.

We understand that replacing your windows is not something that you want to do every few years, which is why we only provide products of the highest quality and guarantee these for ten years.

We are lucky enough to possess a vast amount of experience within the building services industry and our experience allows us to offer a range of services that goes far beyond our chosen specialisation of sash windows.

Many of our clients are told by other companies that a certain service is not possible, simply because they do not have the skills or knowledge to undertake the work. Our well-trained staff are more than just window fitters, giving us the ability to go further than simply fitting your new sash windows.

OUR WORKSHOP

All of our bespoke joinery is handmade in East Sussex, we do not import our windows and we directly employ all of our manufacturing staff. Unlike other companies, this gives us complete control over the design and production process and allows us to create truly bespoke items.

If you are looking for a custom design, designer paint finish or just to replicate your Victorian, Georgian or Edwardian windows then look no further.

We encourage all of our prospective clients to visit our joinery workshop in the historic town of Lewes. Our staff couple modern machinery with traditional methods to manufacture your windows and doors.

"Come and visit us in East Sussex to see how your windows will be made.

I'll make sure the kettle is on for when you get here!"

Trevor Flint
Workshop Manager

"We just wanted to say a big thank you to all of you that have been involved in the process of getting our windows and doors made and installed from start to finish. Phil and Jake did a fantastic job installing the windows and they were a pleasure to have around, working steadily away throughout the noise and chaos whilst we were undergoing a major refurbishment! They were a very calming and re-assuring presence which was much needed."
