Details of the pre-application advice received

Jon was the planning officer that dealt with our application for our micro brewery on this site.
When we were considering setting up a Tap Bar on our brewery site we emailed Jon with an enquiry as to whether we would need to submit a new planning application.
At the time Jon thought this could be treated as 'ancillary to the use of the buildings as a brewery'.
However we were since asked to submit a separate retrospective application for the Tap Bar following the further development of the site to include glamping facilities.
