Eligibility
Permitted development rights are subject to conditions set by legislation to ensure that only appropriate proposals are eligible. The need to apply to the Local Planning Authority to see if prior approval is required is one such condition.
The questions below will help determine if the proposals are eligible for this permitted development right.
Please note, there are further eligibility criteria that will be covered in subsequent questions.
Please note: Any new dwellinghouse will only be eligible for permitted development rights if it has a gross internal floor area of at least 37 square metres, and complies with the nationally described space standard .
Was the use of the site on 20 March 2013 (or the last use before that date) solely for an agricultural use as part of an established agricultural unit?
⊙ Yes ○ No
Has any work under the permitted development rights for the erection, extension or alteration of a building reasonably necessary for the purposes of agriculture been carried out on the agricultural unit since 20 March 2013?
O Yes ⊙ No
Will the external dimensions of the resulting building(s) extend beyond the existing building(s) at any point?
○ Yes ⊙ No

in a site of special scientific interest; in a safety hazard area;
in a military explosives storage area; a scheduled monument (or the site contains one); a listed building (or within the curtilage of a listed building)
 Yes No

Agricultural tenants

To be eligible for this permitted development right, all parties to any agricultural tenancy agreements that are currently in place, or that have been terminated in the year before development is proposed to begin, need to provide consent.

This is to help ensure that agricultural tenants are not displaced to allow a change of use to be carried out.

Is the site currently occupied under any agricultural tenancy agreements?
○ Yes
Have any agricultural tenancy agreements been terminated in the year before development is proposed to begin for the purpose of carrying out the proposed change of use?
O Yes
⊗ No
Dwellinghouses and floor space
To be eligible for this permitted development right, the number and size of dwellinghouses developed has to be within the limits set by legislation. This includes any dwellinghouses that were previously developed under this permitted development right.
 No more than a total of 5 dwellinghouses (including no more than 3 larger dwellinghouses) can be developed; No single dwellinghouse can exceed 465 square metres of floor space; and The total combined floor space of all the larger dwellinghouses developed cannot exceed 465 square metres.
For the purposes of this permitted development right:
 'Smaller dwellinghouse' means a dwellinghouse (Use Class C3) which has a floor space of no more than 100 square metres 'Larger dwellinghouse' means a dwellinghouse (Use Class C3) which has a floor space of more than 100 square metres but no more than 465 square metres.
Please note: For prior approval applications submitted from 6 April 2021 onwards - Any new dwellinghouse will only be eligible for permitted development rights if it has a gross internal floor area of at least 37 square metres, and complies with the nationally described space standard .
