

The proposed changes of the inclusion and erection of a business signage fascia to 55a smith street is proportionate to the existing empty commercial property in term of intended future business use. The signage is toned down with muted colours that have been selected so not to undermine the grade II listed building status.