

Existing blind window opened, consented P/22/0500 27.05.22

Existing doorway blocked up

Sanitaryware to be removed, plumbing reconfigured and a new kitchenette installed

Central wall to be removed and replaced with studwork to reduce the weight on the floor below. Wall face to F.20 living space to match existing wall line. Space maintained between new walls for plumbing

Window opening widened and new french door with flanking vision panels

New portico below, see 4-G(2)-007

New sanitaryware connected to existing plumbing

New partition between bathrooms in mirrored position.

New sanitaryware connected to existing plumbing

Existing partition removed

Doorway relocated centrally to hall

Doorway closed up

New drainage and plumbing to support sanitaryware

Acoustic insulation added in cupboards between bedrooms

New drainage and plumbing to support sanitaryware

New doorway to en-suite

New partition to form linen closet and walk in shower, with entrance from bathroom

Wall taken down and new lift installed

Fireplace taken down and wall moved forward to hide plumbing running behind

New doorway to carer's bathroom from the hallway

Wall taken down and wall moved forward to hide plumbing running behind

Blocked

CDM Regulations 2015:
The designs on this drawing and all drawings relating to it have been prepared with due consideration of the need to identify hazards and give regard to their elimination or minimization. Remaining hazards are noted on this drawing where applicable.

Rev	Date	Revision	By

Client:
Guy Goodfellow

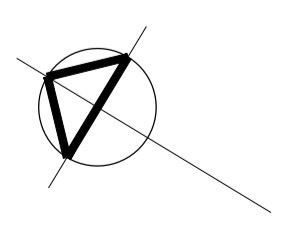

Project:
Biggar Park House
Biggar, South Lanarkshire
ML12 6JS

Title:
Proposed First Floor Plan

Issue Status: PLANNING	Scale: 1:100	Original Size: A1
Date: AUGUST 2022	Drawn by: HB	Checked by: HB

Project No: E3619	Stage: 4 - Technical Design	Drawing No: G (2)- 002	Rev:
-----------------------------	--------------------------------	----------------------------------	----------

20 Torphichen Street, Edinburgh, Scotland, EH3 8JB
Phone +44 (0)131 225 4235 Fax +44 (0)131 220 0499
enquiries@weareglm.com
www.weareglm.com
©Gibson Lawson McKee 2022

Proposed First Floor

