User interface

- In order to save power, the parking terminal remains asleep and only the time and date are displayed till a coin or card is inserted.
- Insert a coin in the coin inlet or a card in the reader (if the payment by card option is available).
- The currently applicable parking tariffs are shown on the tariff card or the tariff screen (if the tariff screens option is present).
- The minimum and maximum tariffs are displayed on the screen.
- To select the desired parking time, insert the corresponding number of coins or use the buttons and/or keypad.
- The calculated parking time is displayed on the screen when the coins are accepted (any rejected coins fall directly into the coin bowl).
- The user then presses the (green) Validate button.
- Printing starts and a parking ticket is issued.
- The (red) Cancel button is used to stop the transaction before it is validated. In that case, the coins are returned immediately and the card is not debited.
