Existing Use

Please describe the current use of the site

Agricultural use. In use for vegetable growing. The site is part of land purchased from South Gloucestershire Council in 2014: it originally formed part of land allocated for allotments at Pennsylvania. The soil is particularly well suited for vegetable growing being in a deep pocket of 'Midford Sand, as opposed to the thin topsoil overlying Cotswold Brash stone on the remainder of the Toghill Barns site.

Details of the pre-application advice received
Telephone discussion on previous proposal to place polytunnels on site under permitted development on an agricultural holding. The isolated siting of the polytunnels away from the Toghill Barns buildings was a matter of concern and would require full planning permission with justification on agricultural grounds, such as the nature ofthe soil.
Authority Employee/Member
With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following: (a) a member of staff (b) an elected member (c) related to a member of staff (d) related to an elected member
It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.
For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
