Details of the pre-application advice received

Please see the attached Guidance received from the Caerphilly county Borough Council.

Following is the summary of the guidance:-

"To summarise the proposed works would not result in an increased loss in privacy than what is already existing, create unneighbourly overbearing development and the materials used would complement the existing character. Therefore, it is deemed that the works would likely be received favourably due to the apparent compliance with policies SP6, SP21, CW2 and CW3".
