

Field Shelter

We haven't chosen a particular kit or size and shape for this – but it is an exposed site, so we need somewhere for people to shelter and to store things in the event that the weather turns.

The idea would be to create or buy something akin to a field shelter typically used for livestock or horses. Ideally 24ft by 12ft in order to provide space for a number of people.

