

May and June each year. I have been visiting Brook Hall Farm for approximately 30 years.

5. I am aware of the associated agricultural buildings. Each year some of the hay is stored in the barn at the Farm and is used for animal fodder.
6. I visit the farm usually in January or February each year to trim hedges and then again in early spring to fertilise the fields.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the Statutory Declarations Act 1835
